Test Results and Interview Guide

The Cook - Institution and Cafeteria (Short plus Video Interview) assessment measures key factors related to high performance and tenure in this job. Attribute types measured vary by test, but can include cognitive ability, skills, knowledge, personality characteristics, emotional intelligence, and past behavioral history. This report includes a one page summary, followed by detailed results with an embedded interview guide. Note that these results should always be used as a part of a balanced candidate selection process that includes independent evaluation steps, such as interviews and reference checks.

| Please describe something you like to do during your free time. | Hello, my name is Sandy. Something that I like to do during my free time is play music. I think it is a great escape. I think it's very relaxing. I think it helps grow your mind as you age. Uh, everyone in my family plays music. So it's a highlight of my day if I get to pick up an instrument and play as well as sing, whether that be in the car or at home. I also like to spend a lot of time with family and friends. They're very important to me. They support me a lot. So spending time with them provides me with a lot of happiness.   View this video recording:  |
| Talk about yourself. Start with your name, then add whatever you want. | Oh, goodness, where to start. There's a lot that I could say about myself. I feel what's more important to this interview is my education. Um, I had my undergraduate in psychology, just a bachelor's in science and then moving on to my master's degree. I have a master's in science, in industrial organizational psychology. Uh, a lot of my free time is spent with friends and family. I love to play sports. I love musical instruments. I love going on adventures. I love staying healthy when I can as well, both mentally and physically. And I would say that's, that's the best start to me. Oh, I also have a dog. His name is Sammy and he is an absolute sweetie. He is my life.   View this video recording:  |
| What are your biggest strengths and weaknesses? | So to start with my biggest strengths, I would say I have a lot of leadership skills. I have been in leadership positions all of my life, even from elementary school, moving all the way through college and even now in the workplace, uh I love, you know, leading others and, and having that role, I'm a very strong communicator. I believe communication is very um a lot of my peers and coworkers have, have talked about that as well that I'm very, I'm almost an over communicator not to bleed too much into the weaknesses, but I am very high on the communication side. I'm very creative. I, I have had creativity throughout my life with, with music and art. Um and that has bled into uh psychology as well. I am very good with time management. I'm very organized, it comes with the, the position as well. Uh I'm very curious, I love growing my, my learning ability as far as weaknesses. I, I could say in part that over communication could be a weakness. I notice that sometimes in emails, my emails are, are very lengthy for certain things because I feel that I have to over communicate to make sure that everything is clear to all different types of parties as well as a weakness being that I always put my health first before my job. So if necessary, if needed, I put my health and the health of my closest family members first.   View this video recording:  |

Report Preparation Notes

- Hiring decisions should never be based on a single source of information. The most effective use of this assessment report is as a part of a multi-faceted program of candidate evaluation that includes resume review, interviews, and reference checks.
- Overall vs Percentiles Scores: The overall score reflects the success in the test, based on the mean (average) and standard deviation of the test scores. The percentile score reflects the percentage of test-takers who scored equal or below this overall score. We recommend you use the Overall Score as your primary evaluation criteria. However, percentile scores can often be useful in comparing specific candidates against one another and with a group, such as for test takers in a certain organization or within a certain account.
- Note that comparison information is calculated based on completed instances of this assessment at that time the assessment is scored. As additional instances are completed, the comparative data may change. You can always update a report to the current values by clicking on 'Recalculate Percentiles' within the online results viewing pages at www.hravatar.com.
- Most competency scores are norm-based, which means that they can be interpreted in terms of their distance from the average or mean score. For all scales, a score equal to the mean receives a score of 65 and scores above and below this value are set so that a score change of 15 equals one standard deviation.
- For linear competencies, higher is better across the entire scale. For these scales a score between 65 and 80 (light green) represents 0 to 1 standard deviation above the mean and a score above 80 (dark green) represents more than one standard deviation above the mean. Similarly, a score of 50 - 65 (yellow) represents 0 to 1 standard deviation below the mean, while a score of 35 - 50 (orange) equates to 1 to 2 standard deviations below the mean, and a score below 35 represents more than 2 standard deviations below the mean.
- This assessment makes use of data from the Occupational Information Network (O*NET), which is funded by the U.S. Federal Government - U.S. Department of Labor/Employment and Training Administration (USDOL/ETA) - as a primary source of occupational information. The O*NET database contains information on hundreds of standardized and occupation-specific descriptors that are continually updated by ongoing research. These data are used in preparing descriptive information as well as setting relative weights between competencies used in calculating the overall score. For additional information about O*NET, visit <http://www.onetcenter.org>.

Score Calculation Detail

The following table provides a summary of how the overall score was calculated from the individual competency scores. Competency scores are calculated on a 0-100 scale by first calculating a Z statistic based on test-taker responses and then transforming the Z value to a scale with target mean and standard deviation. Certain competencies have a normal score distribution where it is best to be closest to the mean. For these competencies we modify the Z statistic by multiplying its absolute value by minus 1 for the overall score calculation. Next, to calculate the overall score, a weighted average of all modified competency Z statistics is computed and this weighted average is itself transformed to a Z statistic, which is then transformed to a score with the same target mean and standard deviation. Finally outlier scores are adjusted if they are below 0 or above 100.
